Demo Badging: How To?

The screenshot shows a web browser at the URL `breakthefake2019.gigamike.net`. The page has a dark red header with the text `#BreakTheFakeCouncil` on the left and navigation links for Register, Sign in, Yellow Pages, API, and About on the right. Below the header is a row of logos including SEEDS, USAID, and others. The main content area starts with a large heading "Welcome to #BreakTheFakeCouncil". Below this are three white boxes with red icons and titles: "Get Badge", "Be Recognized", and "Be Listed in our Portal". Each box contains placeholder text and a "Learn More" button. Below these is a section titled "#BreakTheFakeCouncil Portal" with a search bar containing "%Keyword%", a category dropdown set to "All Category", and a "Search" button. Underneath, it says "Showing 1 to 8 of 8 entries" and has navigation buttons for "< Previous", "1", and "Next >". At the bottom, there are three image thumbnails with logos for ESPN, a number 5, and RAPPLER. A red envelope icon is in the bottom right corner.

Demo Badging: Educate Readers

Overlaid on the center of the screenshot is a white badge with a red border and a close button (X) in the top right corner. The badge has a red header with three tabs: "Identify Fake Article" (selected), "Article Scores", and "Feedback". The main title of the badge is "HOW TO SPOT FAKE NEWS" in white text on a dark background. Below the title are ten tips, each with a red icon and a brief explanation:

- CONSIDER THE SOURCE: Click away from the story to investigate the site, its mission and its contact info. (Icon: person with question mark)
- READ BEYOND: Headlines can be outrageous in an effort to get clicks. What's the whole story? (Icon: newspaper with magnifying glass)
- CHECK THE AUTHOR: Do a quick search on the author. Are they credible? Are they real? (Icon: quill pen)
- SUPPORTING SOURCES?: Click on those links. Determine if the info given actually supports the story. (Icon: newspaper with magnifying glass)
- CHECK THE DATE: Reposting old news stories doesn't mean they're relevant to current events. (Icon: calendar)
- IS IT A JOKE?: If it is too outlandish, it might be satire. Research the site and author to be sure. (Icon: comedy mask)
- CHECK YOUR BIASES: Consider if your own beliefs could affect your judgement. (Icon: scales of justice)
- ASK THE EXPERTS: Ask a librarian, or consult a fact-checking site. (Icon: person with glasses and book)

At the bottom of the badge, there is a small logo for "IFLA International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions".

Educate. Spot the fake news.
